Group Volunteer Program Guidelines

Thank you for considering Second Harvest Food Bank a worthy volunteer opportunity! While financial support is supported and needed, your willingness to serve is not only valuable, but also a sign of social responsibility. Again, thank you agreeing to serve with Second Harvest Food Bank of Northeast Tennessee.

1. Complete the volunteer application and submit it to Adam Dickson, Volunteer Relations Coordinator, by fax (423.477.3467) or by email (volunteers@netfoodbank.org).
2. Once your application has been received, you will be matched with a partner organization in your community that provides direct service to the community (food pantry or soup kitchen) or linked to the SHFB Warehouse.
3. You will receive notification identifying the agency where you may serve as well as other logistical information (distribution times, dates; etc.).

THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR VOLUNTEERING WITH SECOND HARVEST!!!
